Funding Acknowledgements: Work Stemming from or Relevant to P2C Center Grants

Duke Population Research Center(DPRC)

All research, pilot awards, presentations, posters and publications fully or partially stemming from or relevant to NICHD's Population Dynamics Branch Center funding are expected to acknowledge the Duke Population Research Center (DPRC), NICHD and the P2C HD065563 Grant.

Example Acknowledgements:

- This research received support from the Population Dynamics Research Infrastructure Program award to the Duke Population Research Center (P2C HD065563) at Duke University by the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development.

- We are grateful to the Duke Population Research Center (DPRC) and its NICHD Center Grant (P2C HD0065563) for [type of] support.

- This research received support from Population Dynamics Research Infrastructure Program Grant [P2C HD065563] awarded to M. Giovanna Merli of the Duke Population Research Center by the Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Institute of Child Health and Human Development.

Other Reasons for Acknowledging P2C Center Grant Support

If you have received any of the following types of Center support, please acknowledge the salient Center Grant in your published or presented work.

- ✓ Office space
- ✓ Technical support (hardware, software, services)
- ✓ Data Services (data sources, programming, data contracts, etc.)
- ✓ Information and Communication Services (editorial, design, database, app, web, etc.)
- ✓ Proposal preparation help
- ✓ Grants management help
- ✓ Travel arrangements, Travel to PAA or other Professional Meetings, event planning services
- ✓ Reimbursements